

SWEET BARS

50 EASY RECIPES TO LET YOU SHINE

Stáňa Mutlová

ONE OF THE FOUR SWEET BAR-THEMED BOOKS WORLDWIDE

Learn to prepare a whole new batch of baked fancies and arrange them so daintily even your mother-in-law will be impressed! Stáňa Mutlová is one of the first Czech proponents of the great and magical sweet bar – a display table or counter comprised entirely of patisserie goods. After years of honing her sweet beauties to perfection in her bakealicious Punk Rock Cakes enterprise, she has gathered them into a book the like of which has never before been seen on the Czech book market!

The author's finest morsels of sugary goodness are divided into ten chapters according to the ambience you are hoping to achieve: there's the ladies' do à la SATC, retro-baking Vintage or the one inspired by the children's film 'Up'. Kids in particular will be enthralled by the technicolor wonderland of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, not to mention the unusually conceived Halloween or Christmas. All of the tried and tested recipes have been developed by professionals, but are easy enough for amateurs; each includes a scale of difficulty and the preparation time. The book even offers a perfect solution to the typical nightmare situation: visitors coming in 20 minutes and the pantry completely bare.

The author has her very own unique style of both baking and writing, her matter-of-fact approach is bound to cause a chuckle or two, while David Turecký's magnificent photographs will have you salivating. Flick through this deliciously sweet world and we guarantee you won't want to look at another cookbook!
